Publication history

EUCLID Eucalypts of south-eastern Australia (1997, on CD, CSIRO Publishing)

EUCLID Eucalypts of south-eastern Australia Revised edition (2000, on CD, CSIRO Publishing)

EUCLID Eucalypts of southern Australia Edition 2 (2002, on CD, CSIRO Publishing)

EUCLID Eucalypts of Australia Edition 3 (2006, on DVD/USB, CSIRO Publishing)

EUCLID Eucalypts of Australia Edition 4 (2015, internet based, hosted by the Identic Pty Ltd, Brisbane.)

The core EUCLID group developing the package were: botanists Ian Brooker, Andrew Slee, John Connors, graphic designer Siobhan Duffy and Project Leader Judy West, all at that time employed by the Centre for Plant Biodiversity Research (CPBR) which was a research group formed by CSIRO's Australian National Herbarium and the Commonwealth Government's Australian National Botanic Gardens (ANBG). CPBR has morphed into the Centre for Australian National Biodiversity Research (CANBR) but with the same parent bodies. In producing EUCLID Eucalypts of Australia Edition 4 at CANBR the last two employed contributors were Andrew Slee based in the herbarium and Siobhan Duffy now with CSIRO Communication group, with diligent editorial input from the retired Ian Brooker until 2015; John Connors has retired and Judy West has taken on a role as Executive Director of the Australian National Botanic Gardens.
